INTRODUCTION:

No other series by JAG27/Otto Maddox has ever captured the exceptional following as has THE CHAPERONE. When the series debuted in 2004-05, it was originally intended as a two part comic and nothing more. The simple tale of Chaperone and her ward of dysfunctional cheerleaders getting stuck in a mountainside hunting lodge overnight, the comic was nothing like what it would become over the following years. A simple setting of sexual hijinks was all it was originally crafted to be, so Otto tells me. But after its release through Crazyxxx3dworld, the drunken redhead and her tribe of horny teens sparked an immediate and almost cult following.

“Within days of the comic posting, I was getting email about it,” Otto told me. “By the time the second episode posted, which was intended to be the last installment, I was blown away by the response as was the site owner. Probably within that first month, he was telling me I had to continue the series. We were both getting swamped with email about it. And Olivia seemed to be the primary focus of everyone’s attention. To this day, I’m still not sure why she was such a hit, but she was and still remains so.”

Whatever the reasons, the series touched off a true cult movement at Crazyxxx3dworld and indeed even outside the site. Not that it’s a serious bragging point, but the comic series has been one of the most pirated 3D comics, probably world-wide. Even in Japan and Europe, the comic has been illegally traded and shared. Its popularity leading to widespread theft. Like some sort of pornographic drug, the series has spread all over the internet.

“I can’t say I’m happy with the pirating, as it threatens at times to put us out of business and if that happens, it will effectively put me back to flipping burgers and there simply won’t be any more CHAPERONE ever. A lot of people don’t realize that when they’re illegally sharing content. Most people assume we’re some big company or corporation and that we don’t notice the impact of piracy...but we’re not. The owner is very close and tight with us artists and we all share in the income from the site, and every time we get pirated, it takes money out of our pockets and away from our families. And none of us are getting rich doing 3D porn comics, believe me. Most months, I run from pay-check to pay-check like everybody else and I sure as hell don’t own any fancy cars or condos. I consider it a blessing that I get to do what I do for a living, but every time we get hit hard by piracy, I get a little closer to having to quit and go get a real job. Probably not much of an affront to talk about, but if people really like my comics that much, they need to realize that if it reaches the point I can't pay my bills doing this, then there simply will no longer be any new comics. So piracy, in and of itself, shoots you in the foot. If you like my comics, you need to make sure I can make a living creating them. I can always go get me a job flipping burgers if I need to, but you won't find anybody else doing JAG27 style comics ever again!" Otto's words hold a lot of meaning if you think about it. And I can't say he's far off base at all. With the music industry and media companies, piracy doesn't slap them too hard. Essentially they end up just raising prices to offset their losses, but with small companies like ours, we can only raise our prices to a certain level and then our customers start to fall off...so at a certain point, we simply go under.

So please, if you like THE CHAPERONE or any other comics by JAG27 / Otto Maddox, then please don't pirate and do your best to help support our site. We are happy to get even part-time customers. Buy membership once a year...it's better than not at all! We're happy to take what we can get these days. And as always, know that your money goes directly to the people running the site and creating the comics and the funds support not only these people, but their families as well.

All of that said, let's get on with the guide, shall we?

Understanding the guide is relatively easy. Each episode is listed, in order, along with a brief description of events taking place in the episode along with a coded listing to describe the overall contents. At the end of the episode listings, you will find a Q&A section featuring questions from myself and from various fans of the series along with Otto's responses. Along the way through the guide, you will find various sample images from the series that I felt deserved to be included. At the time of publishing, there were 99 episodes in total, comprised of over 4,300 individual images. In addition to this, there are a handful of "X" bonus episodes. The bonus episodes are included in the guide, listed along with their corresponding main episodes.

The team holes up in a hunting lodge where Clarissa and Amy have a foray while Joy encounters a hillbilly hunter in the communal showers of the lodge. Nelson makes a play for Olivia but falls short.

EPISODE 2 - L H F O C T O D V - 60 Images

Joy's foray with the hillbilly hunter turns into a foursome with three more hillbillies included "Pappy" a disgusting old creepy dude who's importance cannot be undersold here. Remember these dudes and especially Pappy. Olivia and Jacob continue to get it on. Clarissa does Nelson while Amy watches and it rolls into a threesome of sorts...the two tag-teaming Clarissa.

EPISODE 3 - L H C F V W F F - 105 Images

We get our first hint that Amy has a personal fat fetish when the episode opens up with her force-feeding Clarissa. Jacob begins hounding Olivia...convinced he's in love with her but she was drunk the night at the lodge and doesn't want anything to do with him now. She gets drunk again later and ends up doing him once more...only to have Amy catch them and spy on them while masturbating...with a beer bottle?

EPISODE 4 - H F M D V P - 105 Images

Jacob is confronted by Amy after he ventures out of Olivia's bedroom and ends up doing her off in her own room later while Olivia peeps on them. Meanwhile, Joy shows up and Clarissa's house informing her she's pregnant from her tryst with the hillbillies. We also have the first appearance of Nadine Chapman. The sexual tension between Olivia and Amy over Jacob begins and we learn that Amy isn't all so much the lesbian that she likes everyone to think she is...as well as the fact that she may have a thing for her own mother.

EPISODE 5 - L H P F V F F IR- 125 Images

Amy reveals she fucked Jacob to Clarissa and admits that she may not be fully lesbian. Olivia happens across Nelson Fobbs on the street and they end up fucking in an alleyway, an event that will leave readers guessing as to the father of her unborn child for the next 93 episodes. Clarissa tells Amy about Joy being pregnant and the two concoct the idea of getting her fat to hide her pregnancy so she won't get disqualified from cheerleading finals, an insane ploy that will run for most of the series up until episode 93. Olivia does Jacob yet again, and we see the first forced feeding of Joy in an attempt to fatten her up. We also learn that Joy is a total slut freak.

EPISODE 6 - L H C P F T V M S W F F - 67 Images

EPISODE 9 - O MS BS V DS -51 Images

First appearance of Old Betty Jones. She shocked to discover her grandson Jacob has a bit of a MILF / fat woman fetish. Pay close attention here, as the old lady isn't so much disturbed that he's sexually active as she is that he has a fat MILF fetish. There's a reason for this that won't come out till much later and it has to do with who Jacob's REAL grandfather was. Meanwhile, Nadine dreams she walks in on Willie and Clarissa doing it in the basement and eventually wakes to realize it turned her on. Later, after having a few too many drinks, ends up intentionally revealing herself to Willie and demanding that he do the same for her...something that we learn in the next episode is ALSO a dream and not real. Back at the motel, Walter is fucking the shit out of Clarissa??? Then she swacks him in the face snapping him out of his delusional and drunken fantasy! So no, it wasn't real...awww. is out of jail and she tells Colleen about a deal she and Walter have worked out that involves her...and she's in, but the plan will end up going awry later.

EPISODE 55 - PLL - 35 Images

Another appearance of Susan Mitchell and we learn that Walter is the one who put her on the infamous FEM-32 medication. We also have the very first appearance of Mary and Miranda Hammond. NOTE: Tie in with and the origins of THE FALL OF INNOCENSE storyline.

EPISODE 56 & 57 - PLLCF - 48 & 32 Images

Entire episode is the lead-in for TFOI series and features the backstory of Miranda, Mary and Jimmy for that separate series.

EPISODE 58 - DS BE WG F LL C T P - 48 Images

Returns us to the main Chaperone characters. Margaret discovers she's pregnant Leonard and Leslie go ashore with a group of lesbians, one of which turns out to not be so lesbian as Leslie thought...and when she lets her take off with Leonard on a moped, things are set to get nasty.

Back home, Willie has been arrested by the two fat female cops and about the time it's going to get interesting, Colleen shows up and saves him. We get another flash of TFOI revealing who the father of Miranda's baby is... and last but not least, Walter has a dream where Nadine gets hugely fat like Colleen.

EPISODE 59 - LLOSFLPBERP - 35 Images

We get an even deeper view of Miranda's insemination by Jimmy including some unbelievably awesome oral sex scenes. This concludes TFOI tie-ins, at least directly. Meanwhile in Europe, Leonard is off with the chick on the moped and Leslie meets up with an interesting woman of her own. Back home, Nadine has a nightmare where she rapidly expands into super-size pregnancy and horrified by the idea of it, phones up Colleen and tells her the plan is off that she wants her to take Willie to Kansas to stay with their mother for a while. Reluctantly her sister agrees and she and naked Willie set off on the road-trip from hell that doesn't end until episode 99!

EPISODE 60 - L F C M B P - 67 Images

In Europe, Leslie ends up in an alley with her new gal pal while Leonard discovers his buddy has taken him to a nude beach. Back on the ship, pregnant Pauline shows up to visit Margaret and the two end up getting freaky together for Jacob via online video. The last frame in this episode will blow your mind...one helluva first realistic pregnant vagina shot viewed in a sort of "fish-eye" effect. Colleen, tired from driving all night, gets pulled over in Arizona and ordered to get a room at a local drive in motel for some sleep as part of a deal to get out of a ticket.

EPISODE 61 - F V P - 40 Images

Colleen and Willie get checked into the motel only to have a run-in with a Hispanic maid who's a little too nosy for her own good, an event that will lead to even more trouble for the two road-trippers. Meanwhile, Joy puts the moves to her father in an effort to bend him into helping her all while a store clerk peeps.

EPISODE 62 - F D F M B H C - 43 Images

We get another flash of TFOI in two segments and Willie's long dong becomes legend at the motel and word of it reaches the ears of a total whore and slut who decides to pay him a visit while Colleen is off buying him some clothes.

EPISODE 63 - O P L M F H C - 33 Images

Amy and Jacob fight again and Amy storms out, but not before going off on Betty...something that throws the old woman into a flashback that gives us some insight into the TALES OF THE DUENNA series and we eventually learn now who Margaret's real father was and hence who Jacob's grandfather is and the genetic source of his big dick.

EPISODE 64 - C F H - 38 Images

Betty's flashback to the 1960's continues...and in the present, Willie gets conned into leaving the motel room to get something for the scrawny whore...an act that will lead to serious consequences later in the series.

EPISODE 65 - HLLCT - 38 Images

Willie runs into a little Hispanic slut in the vending machine room who sets her eyes on his cock with malevolent and deviant intentions despite his reservations about the matter. We also continue Betty's flashback. Amy visits Olivia at the donut shop after her fight with Jacob.

EPISODE 66 - HLLCT - 31 Images

Joy has a run in with Monica at the restaurant where she works and she gets a brilliant idea to aid in the ongoing battle to conceal her pregnancy for cheerleading finals. We also find out that Peeper Jenkins is Margaret's father. And lastly, the Hispanic chickie forces Willie to put out for her against his will. NOTE: First appearance of Monica Littleton, a character who will have profound influence on the series in episode 98.

EPISODE 67X - CFP LLHF - 42 Images

The discussion between Joy and Monica turns into a fucking free-for-all of fisticuffs as the two duke it out in the bathroom, pregnant and all in one of the few straight-up fights depicted in the series. Out in Arizona, Willie gets busted fucking the Hispanic chick by her mother! And we finally meet Dave Wallis, Olivia's boss and owner of the donut shop, a balding pig of a man. This is his only appearance in the series, though he is spoken of quite a bit off and on. This episode was originally rated "X" because of the violence in it and is the only "X" episode that doesn't have a corresponding regular numbered episode to support it.

EPISODE 68 - MS O C C F - 50 Images

Colleen returns to the motel only to find Willie on the run from the angry Hispanic mom and the scrawny whore on the run from her pimp. To make matters worse, they end up discovering the pimp is the Hispanic girl's father and the mom's husband...and he's got a penchant for shooting at people. A harrowing escape ensues...but this isn't the last we hear from the pimp. Meanwhile Joy gets checked out by Walter and she goads him into falsifying her pregnancy report and into hiring Monica as his new receptionist. Also we get a glimpse of Joan and Matthew going at it again. There's a brief cameo of Mary Hammond when she asks Walter to give her something to make her boobs bigger. And lastly, Betty busts Jacob spying on her while she masturbates and we find out she's remembering a little bit of her nasty past still lingers.

EPISODE 69 - P I R T O C M S - 34 Images

Jacob actually ends up banging his grandmother and Olivia hooks up with two skateboard punks at the donut shop. Meanwhile, Amy pays a visit to Nelson Fobbs. Anyone notice that every time Amy fights with Jacob she ends up having sex with black men? Lastly, Joy meets up with Monica and offers her help getting a new job.

EPISODE 70 - C T P O M S B E W G R P - 34 Images

Olivia continues on with her two boy-toys and Jacob has a wild dream in which his mother grows super fat and his grandmother, Betty, is pregnant for him and the two women end up fighting over him. Later, Jacob reveals to Margaret that he banged Betty and to his shock, his mother isn't mad about it at all.

EPISODE 71 - C P T M S - 33 Images

Aboard ship, Lonnie introduces Margaret to Leonard and Leslie gets a little pissed off now that she's taken him for her own sex toy. She runs them off and puts the move on Leonard herself. And of course, Olivia still fucking the guys at the donut shop!

EPISODE 72 - IR H - 34 Images

We meet Nelson Fobb's Grandmother, Ruby Carter, a slightly deranged and hugely fat black woman and also his mother, a cracked out prostitute named Faneesha. Nelson fucks Amy in his room and his mother comes home and catches them.

EPISODE 73 - IR P F H - 33 Images

In this episode, we first find out about Nurse McKenzie's obsession for Walter...something that will come to a serious head in episode 98. Amy tries to leave Nelson's apartment, but Faneesha confronts her ending in threats. Later, Faneesha melts down in the shower over things, fearing her son won't get out of the hood, that he's going to get Amy pregnant and ruin his life. Ruby walks in and ends up intervening in the matter later. Meanwhile, Joan discovers her husband had it bad for Joy and decides to work that to her advantage.

EPISODE 74 - IR P T H C M S - 43 Images

Ruby demands that a naked Nelson go tend to his mother and she forces him into the bathroom with her. They talk, she tells him of her worries, he reassures her about matters, and at some point he ends up sucking her titties and banging her on the toilet. Who'd have thought, right? Lastly, Olivia is still banging the two skater dudes...how long can this last?? Well Amy walks in on them...back from Nelson's place, but that might not end it either!

EPISODE 75 - MS O F WG V - 32 Images

Jacob prepares to fly out to go meet his mother in Europe but not before sending her a video of him fucking Betty...a video that eventually ends up getting watched by Lonnie and Margaret's weight-gain continues to spiral out of control.

EPISODE 76 - O WG H - 40 Images

Amy falls asleep in the donut shop waiting on Olivia to finish up with her threesome in the bathroom. At some point Olivia finally comes out only to run into Nadine who invites her out with her to talk...so Amy, out cold, gets left alone in the donut shop after hours. Aboard ship, Margaret hooks up with Ricky and gets some in a service corridor. And lastly, Betty discovers Jacob recorded her having sex with him...most likely for Margaret and it pisses her off. Also there's a brief exchange between Kate McKenzie and Monica when she shows up for her job as the new receptionist.

EPISODE 77 - DS W MB DU WG BE - 40 Images

This is the ultimate trip of acid throughout the series. Amy dreams she's lost in a world which looks quite similar to a well-known television show and she ends up being made hugely fat by rapping robots and a well-endowed black man in spandex. This is, perhaps, one of the funniest spoofs of all of Otto's work. Definitely a fan favorite! At the end of this episode we get a segment of Clarissa masturbating with a huge dildo.

EPISODE 78 - FD MS C F - 35 Images

We rejoin Colleen as she calls for a wrecker and then ends up having to leave the prostitute and Willie out in the desert while she goes into town for help. Walter meets Monica and somewhat freaks out when he sees her tits. After his round with Faneesha, Nelson finds himself being prospected by Ruby as well. Lastly, Gary and Joan get it on while watching Joy doing her cheer routine.

EPISODE 79 - DS MS C PG - 32 Images

The prostitute makes Willie eat some mushrooms she finds under a rock and the two start tripping. Meanwhile Betty calls Amy and tells her about Jacob filming her and she and Clarissa end agreeing to help her get back at him. And we see Willie's hallucination as he trips on the shrooms and it's pretty nasty weird, involving his mother and Nurse McKenzie.

EPISODE 80 - MS LM RP BE IR PG - 33 Images

Willie's hallucination continues and Faneesha has a bit of a dream herself in which Nelson is fucking a very rapidly expanding and pregnant Amy...then she imagines herself pregnant for him. Lastly, Gary and Joan discuss the aftermath of their own nasty business. This episode contained some seriously awesome pregnancy scenes and so I'm including several images from a certain sequence with this listing.

EPISODE 81 - LL H BE WG F DS - 38 Images

We get a flashback to the eighties...when Colleen, Nadine, and Olivia were all in college together and...Walter had a mustache - well not yet, but wait! Cue the Magnum PI theme music! Meanwhile, aboard the plane to Europe, Jacob has a bizarre dream that seems creepily similar to one Margaret had previously and he awakens to find that he is tripping on a weird drug called Tibetan Guru that someone slipped him...but who? No one knows...no one knows...and he imagines all sorts of weird things like rapidly inflating bellies and some chickie with pigtails who throws herself at him in the plane's bathroom.

EPISODE 82 - DS BE WG LL F H - 30 Images

Jacob continues to trip, and after banging the chickie in the bathroom, he freaks out and imagines all the women on the plane are rapidly becoming fatter and fatter. One chick realizes what's happening to him and calms him down...later he'll end up hooking up with her. Meanwhile aboard ship, Lonnie talks with Leslie and she agrees to let her come by and get with Leonard again...but on her terms! And yes...we finally see the young and super-studly Walter busting his first move on Olivia. And Olivia was studying psychology??? Who'd have thunk, eh?

EPISODE 83 - H F L - 35 Images

Willie and the prostitute are roaming through the desert tripping...meanwhile, Colleen meets up with a mechanic and together they set off to go rescue the two shroom heads...and at some odd point, Colleen ends up topless and their jeep tire gets shot out by guess who? The pimp is back and he's gunning for Willie. In Europe, Jacob gets it on with the lady from the plane.

EPISODE 84 - WG F H LL P - 33 Images

Margaret's eating is out of control and she's getting fatter by the minute. Meanwhile, Jacob has another hallucination and realizes the girl from the plane bathroom was Amy as he remembered her from their first meeting and by the time the trip is done, he realizes that he's in love with Amy and always has been and he wants her to have his baby. It's a stark moment of clarity for him and it changes his life forever. A very deeply written episode.

EPISODE 85 - WG F MS DS - 36 Images

The plane woman gets Jacob some more Tibetan Guru and his hallucinations get wild again. Meanwhile, Margaret, still aboard ship, decides to go pay a visit to Leslie and Leonard, only to run into Lonnie outside their cabin. Lonnie's drunk though but both end up in going in to see Leonard. NOTE: This is the first real contention seen between Lonnie and Margaret over a male and it only builds from here.

EPISODE 86 - L MS C - 24 Images

Leslie lets Margaret and Lonnie in and the party is set to start. Meanwhile, Nadine brings Olivia home with her and they get intimate with their catching up on events and issues with each other...and Walter.

EPISODE 87 - M S T F P - 40 Images

Lonnie, drunk, passes out and misses most of the show, but Margret and Leslie tag-team Leonard in a seriously nasty threesome. Meanwhile, Olivia and Nadine end up going lesbian with one another...something that we get the feeling isn't new for them...and Olivia admits that Jacob is the one who got her pregnant. This episode has gone down as one of the nastiest sex threesomes and after you read it, you'll know why. Nasty shit...nasty, nasty shit.

EPISODE 88 - M S F P - 31 Images

Amy and Clarissa make a startling discovery with Betty's help. Margaret was partying with Nadine and Walter back in the day and it becomes apparent from notes and polaroid photos that Walter is also Jacob's father...a shock for Clarissa and later for Amy as well...when Olivia lets it slip that Walter is also Amy's father...meaning Jacob, Amy and Clarissa are all three Walter's rugrats! AWKWARD--- to say the least! Lastly a little more funk with Margaret and Leslie and Leonard.

EPISODE 89 - L M M S W G F D S - 46 Images

Margaret finally arrives and meets up with Jacob in his hotel room in Amsterdam and he's shocked to realize that he's not hallucinating...that his mother is really super fat now and when she reveals her tits or producing milk, the sex is on like a chicken bone!
Oddly, Amy falls asleep and dreams about the DJ dude again in his hot pink spandex and she finds herself in Jacob's hotel room watching him fucking his mother and she realizes she wants him back really bad.

EPISODE 90 - P RP BE WG F MS - 43 Images

Amy's dream continues and she imagines herself growing fatter and fatter and looking like Olivia...then oddly, she encounters HERSELF? She's not the only one dreaming, and Nadine, snoozing, finds herself hugely pregnant again and giving birth to a giant penis and then having sex with Willie on a hospital gurney. Yeah, I know...this one is pretty fucking twisted.

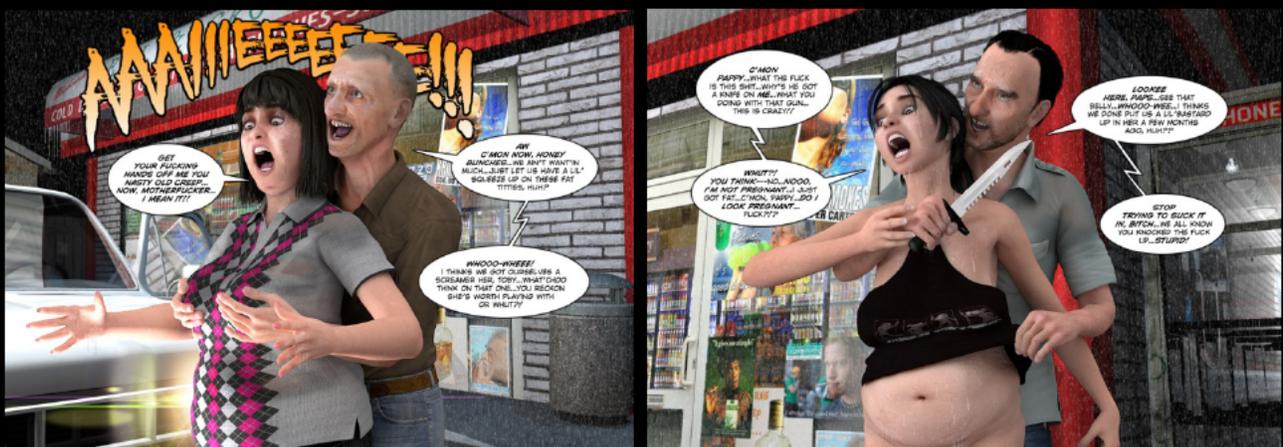

EPISODE 91 - PG WG BE F L MS - 38 Images

Nadine's dream continues, as does Amy's. In Amy's dream, she realizes she is assuming the roles of both herself and her mother and we finally learn that she is ultimately attracted to her mother sexually and as she gets fatter, her normal self pops out a penis and jacks off on her. Yeah, that made my head hurt just trying to explain it. But it's some seriously awesome body expansion and the Amy-with-a-penis scenes are oddly erotic and well done.

EPISODE 92 - MS CF F H DS - 36 Images

This episode begins the new plotting techniques Otto developed toward the end of 2010 and rolling over into 2011. From here forward you see a more clearly defined and readable plot within the series and the characters become a lot more than just sex puppets. Basically put, this is where the series takes a turn for the more gritty and realistic. It goes from being an 8 on the 10 scale, to a full blown 20. The episode opens with Colleen recalling previous events of the day and we learn that she and the mechanic woman had to split up to draw the crazed Mexican pimp off of Willie. In the resulting melee, the mechanic ends up nearly naked, running for her life through the desert until the pimp shoots her in the leg...but at the last moment, Colleen pops out and caps the fucker with no hesitation. Meanwhile, Nadine's dream continues and she awakens after she sees the pimp in her dream try to kill Willie. Again, we get a glimpse of her tilting toward being a little unstable mentally.

After nearly a year on hiatus, The Chaperone series returned in 2012, with all new art styles and character designs. Together with the new plotting techniques, Otto moves the series even further forward in realism and deep seated storytelling.

EPISODE 93 - P C F T - 46 Images

This entire episode jumps slightly forward to a point in time where we learn that the school has found out about Joy's pregnancy and dropped her from the cheerleading team. She and Joan are taking a trip to see Joy's grandmother but due to a mudslide, [are you having any deja-vu yet?] the two end up on a side road in a severe rain storm attempting to buy gas in a tiny little town. Oddly enough, Joan has a run-in with a truckload of hillbillies who turn out to be none other than the same ones who knocked Joy up way back in the very beginning of the series. One thing leads to another, and the two end up being kidnapped by the inbred bastards after they figure out Joy is pregnant by one of them.

EPISODE 94 - T H P F O S - 31 Images

The inbreds dump Joan's SUV and take her and Joy up to a deserted mental hospital in the middle of nowhere, far from the town where they were abducted from. There they proceed to separate them and use them for their debauched sexual amusement. While this is the last we see of the two, their story is far from over, or so Otto assures me.

Around the point of Episode 93 and 94, you will also notice a dramatic difference in the quality of both 3D technique, to include lighting, render, and most obviously, the actual appearance of the characters themselves. Along this time, Otto took some time off to recalibrate and rework his 3D abilities and when he returned to creation, his characters, newly sculpted and retextured, took on a level of realism that was all but breath-taking. If you want to see truly just how much work this man has put into his comics over the years, just scan back to the beginning and compare his older images with the ones you see past this point. It will blow your mind!

EPISODE 95 - WG BE F C - 42 Images

The inept detective that arrested Nadine previously, decides to pay her a visit again when Joy and Joan, her next door neighbors come up missing and through a series of bungling and illegal tactics, Bixby manages to arrest Nadine yet again...while she's naked. Aboard ship, Margaret effectively breaks it off with Jacob and tells him that the baby isn't his and that she's got a thing going with Ricky. Devastated, Jacob ends up falling between the legs of Lonnie...during which time he imagines her having a gigantic ass...apparently his Tibetan Guru hasn't worn off yet. Will it ever?

EPISODE 96 - P C M S F H - 43 Images

Margaret walks in and...finds Ricky doing Leslie??? Well he was a chubby chaser if you recall! It doesn't bode well for him and the devastated Margaret runs off back to her cabin only to bust in on Jacob fucking Lonnie and a fight ensues during which time Lonnie reveals that Margaret lied and that her baby is Jacob's! Jacob gets into it then and goes off on his mother until she storms out crying...and depressed, throws herself off the ship. Yes...is that a suicide?? Maybe it is. I told you the new plotting gets gritty! Meanwhile, Olivia gets mistaken for an internet porn model and the possibilities of that get her to thinking. Eventually she decides to set up her own porn site and Amy, appalled, goes off on her about it.

AND YOU...
WALTER FUCKING MISTER
FUCKS EVERYBODY CHAPMAN...

EPISODE 98 - WG P F H BS CF - 48 Images

Amy is even fatter now, and some time has apparently passed. Olivia's porn site is rocking and making quite a bit of money. Amy is even helping her film content for it. Things seem well, till Betty calls Olivia and asks her to send Amy over...Jacob is back home and Margaret is apparently dead or at least missing at sea. Amy is quick to take advantage of the situation to get back in with Jacob and the fact that she's fat now certainly helps that along. She also reveals to him that Walter is his father and that she and him are half brother and sister with Clarissa. They end up making up and making out?? All while Betty watches in secret. Meanwhile, Monica, alone at the office with Walter, decides to put the move on him and he ends up giving in to his lust for huge hooters...but Kate left her keys behind and returns to the office to get them...and hearing the noise in Walter's exam room, decides to investigate...gun in hand. When she walks in and sees him fucking Monica...her friend...after he shot her down...it's more than she can bear and things get ugly fast.

EPISODE 99 - F H B S P O C - 42 Images

We jump forward about eight hours in time and the police are attempting to sort out what went on at Walter's office. Meanwhile, the newly fat Amy gets it on with Jacob while Betty masturbates to them out in the hallway. Olivia visits the bank and comes home with more cash than she can comprehend...now knowing her website is a massive success. And dip me in gravy and call me a biscuit...did Willie and Colleen finally make it to Kansas? My favorite scene in this episode is a hugely pregnant Olivia rolling around in a pile of hundred dollar bills. It is magnificent to say the least. And the up-close view of Olivia's vagina blew me away!

This concludes the episode guide entries. At the time of publishing, Otto was hard at work on episode 100. Below you'll find some Q&A with Otto that covers a lot of topics and characters.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS – All about THE CHAPERONE:

What gave you the idea for the Chaperone series?

I don't know. I just sort of came up with the idea one day and thought it would be sort of cool to do something with cheerleaders in it and a proverbial soccer mom who wasn't quite socially or politically correct. The damn thing just snowballed from there and eventually the characters began to take on personalities and lives of their own.

Was Olivia based on a real person?

No, actually she wasn't. I just wanted to create a redhead, something I had not done previously and the short hair was just a random tweak I gave her. The potbelly was an afterthought. She honestly began as a total throw-together character.

I've seen a real European tit queen porn chick who is practically a clone of Nadine's character. Was she based on this model?

You are not alone in having made the comparison. The model in question, who I won't name for obvious reasons, came out around 2008-09. Nadine has been around since 2005. So in honesty, the woman looks like my character, not the other way around. It is an exceptional resemblance, so much so that I've received numerous emails about it over the years, but the answer is no, it's just a strange and uncanny resemblance. And not the only one. I've actually run into people in real life who very much look like my characters and it always startles the hell out of me. I work hard to breathe reality into my characters and sometimes it succeeds so well, as with Nadine, that eventually a real-world person looks just like them. I saw a girl in a certain super-center one afternoon that was so identical to Clarissa that it almost made me pass out. Her hair, her shape, her age, her manner of movement and overall attitude was identical. It was very disconcerting.

Do you always include pregnancy, big tits and fatties in every series?

Yeah, pretty much. I started doing porn comics with two intentions: One, to do what nobody else was doing and two, to do comics with as much plot as porn. I've always believed that the tease and build-up was as important as the actual deed itself, something porn producers in the USA have long overlooked. You look at porn from other countries and you find acting and plot. I wanted to make comics first and porn second. I hope I succeeded. As for doing what nobody else does, well that pretty much covers pregs, tits, and fatties. Aside from that, I like all three myself. Do what you like and you'll never work a day in your life, so they say.

Is Willie ever going to get to Granny Brenner's house and is he going to do her at some point?

Yep, episode 99 in fact. As for boning her...sorry not giving away my plots! Stay tuned!

Is Colleen or Nadine ever going to get pregnant?

Well, again I'm gonna take the 5th and avoid answering that one. I don't want this to turn into spoiler central.

How many kids does Walter Chapman actually have?

Hell, he doesn't even know...how should I? Ha, ha! Seriously though, it's a loose end sort of thing that I may dangle around with later. For now, I don't want to put a clamp on the number.

Are you ever going to continue on with the flashback to Nadine and Olivia in college?

Probably not. I only flashed back to explain that Olivia had a relationship with Walter spanning way back and setting the groundwork for Amy being his daughter. I also needed to explain why she never hit him for child support or told anybody who her father was. I sort of did that and anything else I do now with it is sort of for no reason. So again, probably not.

Is Tales of the Duenna over? You sort of rewrote it back into the main Chaperone series and then left it hanging.

Well, again, as with the previous question, I did the flashback to the 60's in an effort to set the groundwork for explaining Margaret and Jacob's peculiar quirks and appendages...as well as to give a little backstory on Betty. It got encompassing, and so I broke it off into its own series, called Tales of the Duenna. But after a few episodes, it lost its steam and so I merged it back into the Chaperone. After I did so, a lot of people started saying they missed it, so in all likelihood I will eventually tell a little more of Betty's past but it will remain in the Chaperone series. So the Duenna miniseries is dead.

The FEM-32/34 drug changes names at various times throughout the series, why is that?

Honestly it was a FUBAR originally, meaning [fuck up beyond all recognition] – and I have no reasonable excuse for it other than I wasn't paying attention. The proper name is FEM-32.

What happened with the MAX-12 drug and was this really what gave Willie his super dick?

The FEM/MAX drugs were newer versions of a drug called Maxil that was created by NOWPharm based on a drug that the Nazis synthesized which was based on a weird fruit they recovered from Africa prior to WWII that was believed to be Ambrosia, nectar of the gods. The origins of the drug will be covered in the NEUE RASSE series at a future date. You can read more about it in MALEVOLENT INTENTIONS 44. As for Willie, no, the drugs didn't give him the uber-schlong. He inherited it from Nadine's side of the family. I don't want to spoil any upcoming episodes, so let me just say that NEUE RASSE and CHAPERONE will tie in together very shortly.

Is Olivia having a boy or a girl?

Don't want to give it away yet. She goes into labor in episode 99, so you won't have long to wait to find out.

What happened with the two mob goons that were after Tracey and is she dead or what?

They were just random mob goons sent by members of the Chapman clan to "take care" of Walter's problem for him. He and his brother Leonard were "outside" members of a prominent East Coast mafia family and were never part of the family business, but because they ARE family, they can usually make a call to have things handled. In exchange, since they are doctors, they have to pay back the family by various deeds, which is why Walter doesn't want to call them when Tracey blackmails him...but Leonard convinces him to. As for what happened to Tracey? I don't want to spoil that. Will she be back? Again, I don't want to spoil it. Can't say anything else.

Will other members of the Chaperone series be making appearances in Malevolent Intentions and just how far into the future from the Chaperone series is Malevolent? That's always confused me some.

NEUE RASSE	=	1936
TALES OF THE DUENNA	=	1964
Flashback Olivia / Nadine in college	=	1983
Current time for THE CHAPEONE	=	2000
MALEVOLENT INTENTIONS	=	2015

Crossovers are always notoriously hard to follow. I apologize for the confusion. Above is a time line giving dates for the series.

As for other members appearing in Malevolent, in all likelihood, yes, a few will make cameos, but none will be major characters at this point in my plotting. That could eventually change though. You can look forward to some crossing-over with new character Mack from episode 99. He will become an important figure in Clarissa's life both in Chaperone and in Malevolent.

I just joined the site a few months back and I've really gotten into The Chaperone series, but I've noticed the artwork changes dramatically every so many episodes. Why is that?

The series began over eight years ago. During that time, I've developed better 3D techniques and sculpted out better looking, more realistic characters. At most, I can generally only produce about two episodes of a series per month. And I don't always work solely on the Chaperone, so if you average it out, 100 episodes over eight years, it comes out to just a little over one episode a month for the eight years. So every 12 to 13 episodes you read, I'm advancing about a year in both skills and software. Compare episode 1 to 99 and you can see what kind of a difference it really makes. I realize that most people are used to standard drawn comics where the characters look identical as long as the artist remains the same, but with 3D, the technology advances constantly and if I don't keep up with it, my work falls behind and would eventually end up being laughed at in comparison to others' work. So I have to stay up with the advancing techniques. In a nutshell, you can probably look forward to even more changes as we enter into the 100's.

A final word from Otto Maddox about the series and his work:

When I began working in 3D comics, I never dreamed I'd develop such a cult following worldwide. I had worked in both porn and mainstream comics for over a decade, and had never truly found notoriety in either field. When I first went to work for Crazyxxx3dworld, I had no clue what I was going to be doing. The owner, a man who's been very good to me over the years, had reviewed my work and asked me to come to work for him full time. Up until that point, I'd only done random short-run comics that were fully porn oriented...in other words, no plots really, aside from the delivery of naked characters and most of that work had been done for little to no real pay. When the owner of Crazyxxx3dworld hired me, he did so knowing that I wanted to real comics and not just porn crap. He agreed there was likely a market for it and so his instructions to me was to create a group of series that could be ongoing and interesting. Story first, porn second. I was overwhelmed at first, as no one had ever given me that sort of creative freedom. I embarked on a mission to make "good porn," if you can call it that. I wanted to create comics that crossed the boundaries between real world, real person movies and the amazing and unimpeded world of comics and cartoons. 3D opened a new niche in digital media...one that gave me and many others, the opportunity to build that bridge...the one that would cross the boundaries I mentioned. So there I was, impeded only by lack of a plot and characters...knowing there were no limits to what I could but yet having no idea what I should be doing. Somehow, out of the fog, emerged THE CHAPERONE and its infamous cast of characters...Olivia Davis being the first one. Where she came from, I have no idea. I was just sitting there with this idea of a drunk, worthless soccer-mom in my head and somehow she just poured out onto my screen...a red-head with a nice rack but a fat gut that spoke to her constant drinking. The man-cut hair emerged from the concept that she independent and didn't need a man to take care of her...she was her own man, so to speak. The cheerleading crew was just an amalgamation of every type of bad movie I'd ever seen...fat girl, prissy girl, slut girl, black guy, and squirrely white guy. Their distinct personalities would develop later. When the first two episodes started generating fan mail immediately after release, the owner told me I was on to something, and told me to keep going with it. With the continuation, I had to bring in more characters and Nadine was born. Honestly I'm not sure how I managed to come up with her. I can recall knowing that I wanted Clarissa to be the smart one of the bunch, so it just seemed humorous to make her mother a moron...so the ditzy blonde was born. Clarissa already had huge boobs, so I figured Nadine should have them too. Willie started out as the "weird little annoying brother" and mostly just a joke. You may recall when Clarissa popped off to her mother than Willie was the father of Joy's baby. Sometime after that, I just threw him into the story and he sort of "made" himself. The relationship between Nadine and Willie was probably the first mother/son angle in the series...and after it debuted, I was again, overwhelmed with fan mail. Everybody loved it. So I decided to push the mother/son element further in the series, but to do that I had to build in some sort of "reason" for this...and thus was born the drug and NOWPharm elements of the series. Sons with huge penises would be more likely to have the sexual attention of their mothers, right? This became the most successful driving factor in the series and went on to spawn Malevolent Intentions, Fall of Innocence and Uninhibited...all successful series on their own merits, but all deriving their origins and even characters, from the Chaperone universe.

I hope to continue on with all these series over the next few years, but as with all things, certain content gets to be stale after it's been done so many times. So as most of you will probably have noted, by the time we reach the 90's, the series begins to shift into a different direction. Over the coming episodes, I will be expanding on areas that I haven't touched and doing things that I haven't done before. While you can certainly expect to see the same characters in the newer episodes, you should also be prepared to see them doing things they haven't done before. The drama will get far more intense and the sex will get far more freakish. Also look for some of the characters to get what's coming to them. I have always been excited by the fact that I could do things in comics that you simply can't do in the real world. It gives you a freedom of creativity that cannot be matched in any realistic medium, other than 3D. But to allow a character in a series to do unacceptable acts [in the real world]...and to have them do it without any ramifications, always seemed unjust to me...and also set a bad example. Mothers don't have sex with their sons in the real world without serious, dire implications and so to me, the characters in my comics should not do such things without detrimental results either...and for several reasons. One, I want realism in my work, and to mimic that, I must insert reality into my comics. And two, I don't ever want my work to become a toy for people who actually commit similar acts but with real people in the real world...and so I want to display a dose of consequences in my work. So expect to see those "consequences" beginning to rear their ugly head in all my series during the next few months. Some characters will get what's coming to them...and some will simply get it, whether it was coming or not. I want to keep my readers guessing and not just continue to deliver the same drivel with nakedness each episode. So if you've been impressed with my work thus far, then sit down, strap in, and prepare to have your socks blown off during the next round.

Thank you for buying access to my comics and I hope they deliver what you expect. While they may gross you out or make you laugh...or even blow your mind from time to time, they will never be ordinary or boring. I do my very best to do what no one else does. On behalf of myself and my family, I thank you for supporting my work...and I will be overjoyed to continue creating comics for as long as I can afford to do so.
